Home Textiles Sourcing Expands to Los Angeles in 2026

Messe Frankfurt Inc. is proud to announce that Home Textiles Sourcing will expand to the West Coast in 2026, co-locating with Texworld Los Angeles and Apparel Sourcing Los Angeles for the first time. This expansion responds directly to growing market demand from West Coast buyers and brands seeking convenient access to global sourcing across multiple categories.

Already a cornerstone in New York, Home Textiles Sourcing provides a dedicated marketplace for home fabrics and finished soft goods across bedding, bath, table, floor coverings, decorative accessories, and more. The move to Los Angeles acknowledges the strength of the West Coast home market, where interior design, hospitality, and lifestyle-driven retail continue to thrive, and where buyers are increasingly seeking local opportunities to connect with international suppliers.

“Expanding Home Textiles Sourcing to Los Angeles reflects both the demand we’ve heard from the market and the natural growth of our platform,” said Jennifer Bacon, Vice President of Fashion + Apparel, Messe Frankfurt Inc. “The West Coast is not only a hub for apparel and fashion innovation, but also for home and lifestyle markets. By uniting these three shows under one roof, we’re offering a sourcing experience that supports the full spectrum of buyer needs.”
