Texworld New York City, Apparel Sourcing New York City, and Home Textiles Sourcing return in-person July 19-21, 2022, to the Javits Center with an impressive line-up of live educational seminars and presentation of the latest trends.

More than just sourcing, the co-located shows are a forum for the industry to learn and stay up to date on the latest innovation in textile and state of the trade industry. This edition's educational program includes the ever-popular Textile Talks and industry favorite, Lenzing Seminar Series. The sessions will feature a range of expert speakers and panellists leading open discussions and case studies to provide greater insight and knowledge exchange on topics including the latest in economic and supply chain challenges, sustainable strategies and legislations, accelerating circularity, and more.

This Summer 2022 edition also brings an exciting and artistic direction from the New York-based agency, Doneger | TOBE, spearheading the look and design for the Trend Showcase, along with offering insights during a one-day only seminar on what's to come for the Fall/Winter 2023-24 season. The Trend Showcase will fill the hall with innovative materials and inspirational color palettes taking visitors on a journey BEYOND: "We have roamed the galaxies in search of meaning, to realize it can only be found within. As life passes us by, a collective consciousness dawns upon us – That we must dive beneath the surface and look beyond the material" notes Kai Chow, Creative Director, Doneger | TOBE. "Technological advancement, a craving for community and a sense of responsibility for the planet intertwine as we seek to remodel fashion."

Chow will present four unique themes encompassing his vision of BEYOND: Color Therapy, Future Craft, Hyper Nature, and Spirit Quest.
